

Fulton County Schools

PRESS RELEASE

May 20, 2020

Fulton County School Board members voted unanimously on Monday, May 18, to appoint Brian Emmons to the board vacancy left open by Jacob Goodman. Mr. Emmons will fill the District 5 board position until the end of the year. Districts 5 and District 3 positions will come up for reelection in November.

Mr. Emmons has three daughters at Fulton County Schools. Madison is a 2020 senior and will be attending Murray State University in the fall to become a veterinary technician. His daughter Hannah will be a sophomore, and his daughter Abigail will be a freshman at Fulton County High School for the upcoming year. Brian and his wife Misti are very involved with their girls at Fulton County. They enjoy attending all athletic events and watching their girls play volleyball.

Employed at Russom's Carstar in Rutherford, Tennessee, Mr. Emmons works as a Body Shop Estimator. His wife, Misti, is a 2nd grade teacher at Margaret Newton Elementary. Since moving to this area five years ago, their family has attended the First Pentecostal Church in Union City, Tennessee, where they are very involved in the Music Ministry.

Mr. Emmons is very excited to begin his service to Fulton County Schools as a board member and looks forward to learning all that he can to help the students succeed. He enjoys helping others and wants to make a difference at Fulton County. Mr. Emmons stated, "I want to be a part of something great, and I think Fulton County is great. I intend to give 100% to the board and do all that I can for our school system."

Superintendent, Aaron Collins stated, "Mr. Emmons is a valued parent and community member. I am grateful for his willingness to serve Fulton County School Board." The next board meeting is scheduled for Thursday, May 28, at 6:00 p.m. Mr. Emmons will join the other board members for his first official meeting this evening.
